Written to the Philippian church by the apostle Paul, the letter to the Philippians is a spiritual love letter to the church, filled with warm affection and gratitude. Written under hard circumstances while Paul was a prisoner, it emphasizes victory and joy. The central message focuses on Jesus Christ as He is the example to whom we should aspire. Paul encourages the reader to rejoice in all things and to think about that which is true, noble, right, pure, lovely and admirable. Join this study in the book of Philippians as we allow Paul's words to encourage and challenge us as they did the believers of the 1st century.
